ADRIEN ROUSTAN
VIGNERON

GIGONDAS

Terroir :

Place called the « Grand Montmirail » altitude vineyards (400 to 520 meters). The bottom of the hill consists of a red marl that brings the muscle and virility. In middle and high hillside limestone bedrock is increasingly present, it transmits wines tension and race.

Vineyard planted in 1975.

Grape varieties :

70% Grenache, 20% Syrah, 10% Cinsault.

Vinification :

Grapes destemmed, crushed and followed by a short infusion.

Only matured in concrete tank to reveal the complexity and tension of this wine.

Personality :

This is a masculine wine, elegant, vibrating. The originality of the place is transmitted with energy. Our Gigondas has this character, this minerality, water of rock, wine of rock.

Food & Wine pairing :

Perdreaux with cabbage, Hare with cream sauce.
